GENERAL GOVERNMENT
DIVISION

B-204169

The Honorable Jeremiah Denton
Chairman, Subcommittee on Security and Terrorism
Committee on the Judiciary
United States Senate

Dear Mr. Chairman:

As requested, we have looked into efforts being made by the Federal Government to plan, manage, and coordinate actions to protect this Nation from terrorism. As agreed with your office, we could best aid the subcommittee by identifying Federal agencies that have domestic antiterrorism responsibilities and what their roles are. As noted herein, the Government's program to combat domestic terrorism is an evolving one, incorporating continual refinements in the program's structure and in the participating agencies' responsibilities.

The Departments of State, Justice, Defense, and Energy classified the report confidential because of the breadth and specificity of its contents.

We plan no further distribution of this report until 30 days from the date of the report. At that time we will send copies of the report to selected congressional committees and Federal agencies authorized to receive classified information. No public distribution of this report will be made until the report has been declassified by the appropriate authority.

Sincerely yours,

W. J. Anderson
